DIEGE ON THE DEATH OF THE PRESIDENT.

BY MISS ANNIE A. FITZGERALD,

OF NOTRE DAME COLLEGE, SAN FRANCISCO.

Has he fallen! our country's Ruler?

Has he fallen, our country's Chief?

'Mid the gloom of a nation's mourning,

And the wail of a nation's grief?

Has he fallen, our country's Ruler?

O, hearts that have bled and must bleed!

Has he fallen in the hour of his triumph,

And the hour of our forest need?

Has he fallen, whose hand hath guided

Our ship through the raging waves,

Till the roar of the battle's tempest

Died low o'er its mound of graves?

Till the clouds from our skies seemed sweeping

And the seething billows to cease

And the light of a happier future

Dawned bright on the shores of peace?

Has he fallen our country's Chieftain?—

Aye, patriot souls, to-day

The heart in his generous bosom

Lies cold as the pulseless clay.

Oh! the ban of a nation's hatred,

And the blight of a nation's woe,

And the curse of a nation's vengeance

On the hand that has laid him low.

On the hand with its fend-like malice,

On the heart that the crime hath nursed,

On the life of the base assassin,

Let the lowering tempest burst.

Shame, shame, on the soul and of manhood

Of even his veriest foe,

That grudges his deadliest scolding

To the standard that dealt the blow.

Aye, the wrath of a widowed nation

Be poured on the guilty head!—

But shame not the name of the millions,

With the blot of a crime so dread.

With the blot of so dark a murder,

With the curse of the hearts that bleed,

JOY.—It is with feelings of joy and pleasure that we chronicle the capture of Jeff. Davis, the President of the Confederate States. But in congratulating our people on this success we cannot but regret that others as deep in their treasonable designs as Davis, are still free. We consider Breckenridge, Stephens, Prior, Benjamin, Hardee and others of like stripe equally as guilty and worthy the extreme penalty of the law as Davis; he was merely a representative man, and chosen to carry out their designs, his actions being subject to their approval. They are all guilty alike, and the law will so consider them. Let justice, then, be equally meted out, and when the laws of our country have condemned them to felon's death, let all good people solemnly kneel and thank a just God that our Government has been preserved through the integrity and firmness of a magistrate who was only permitted to see the dawning of peace on his country, through which civilization and christianity received an impetus designed to raise the condition of millions of the human family and bless all mankind.

FOURTH.—On Thursday evening last, a number of our most influential citizens met at Golden Eagle Hall for the purpose of consulting as to the means to be taken for the proper celebration of the coming Fourth of July. The meeting was called to order, and E. H. Gaylord, Esq., elected Chairman, and E. B. Boust, Secretary. The Chairman briefly stated the object of the meeting, when, on motion of F. Breckhauser, a Committee of Arrangements, consisting of eleven, was appointed to take charge of the entire matter, composed of the following named gentlemen: Dutch Flat—F. Breckhauser, W. C. Richmond, B. H. Bartlett, J. M. Garoutte, Henry Runkel, Jno. B. Uren, W. H. Hillhouse, M. S. Gardner, D. W. Strong, Gold Run—O. W. Hollenbeck, Cañon Creek—A. M. Jewell.

On motion the meeting adjourned to meet on the Fourth of July.

E. H. GAYLORD, Chairman.

E. B. BOUST, Secretary.

We are requested to announce that the committee of arrangements will meet at the club room, in the rear of the Excelsior Saloon this afternoon at 4 o'clock. A punctual attendance is requested!

SPRIT OF THE AGE.—On Tuesday evening last, the boys of our town, from the age of six to ten years, having heard of the capture of Jeff. Davis, made an effigy, attached a rope around its neck, and paraded it through the streets, singing in the meantime,

"John Brown's body lies mould'ring in the grave,
And his soul goes marching on."

To the immense satisfaction of all who witnessed their performance. Occasionally some little patriots would break out in shrill tones:

"And we'll hang Jeff. Davis to a sour apple tree."

After parading through the principal streets, the troupe proceeded to an unoccupied building where they suspended the effigy of the arch-traitor. During the night, some one took the thing down, and drew it by the neck to the top of the tallest flag-staff in town, where it remained until Thursday, as a token of the merited punishment due the rebel chief and his cohorts—a fit deed to represent the sentiments of a loyal people, and a forerunner of what is expected to follow in the action of a just Government towards those who have been instrumental in deluging a land with blood in their wicked endeavors to break up a system of Government specially guarded by a Good and All-wise Creator.

DAY OF PRAYER.—By reference to our advertising columns our readers will notice the proclamation by Governor Low for a day of fasting, humiliation and prayer and appointing Thursday the first of July next. In view of the calamity of the recent loss of the nation in the death, by violence, of Mr. LINCOLN, it is proper that we, as a nation, should humbly bow ourselves before the throne of the Creator, confessing our past sins and imploring His forgiveness. We hope the people of this place will observe the day with becoming ceremonies.

ACCIDENT—FORTUNATE ESCAPE.—Two weeks ago, a gentleman named Baker, was washed through the flume of Scheeler's claim some three hundred feet, over two falls, one ten and the other twelve feet, into the large flume in Dutch Flat Ravine, in which there was running some twelve hundred inches of water, and fortunately escaped without having any bones broken and sustaining but few bruises. No one else had better try that caper.

THE following resolution, with others, was unanimously adopted by Olive Lodge, No. 31, I. O. O. F., in this place, and was unintentionally omitted in the publication of the other resolutions:

RESOLVED, That we, in common with our fellow-citizens deeply and sincerely mourn the loss by death, of Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States; that we view with disgust, horror, and indignation, the foul crime of his assassination, that the nation, humanity and civilization, have lost in the death of our lamented President, a friend, statesman and christian, such as it will be impossible to replace.

POSTPONED.—By a note from our worthy Superintendent of Public Schools, we learn that the Placer County Institute will not convene till the 27th of June, instead of the 13th. The change was made in order to secure the services of Professors Holmes and Knowlton, of San Francisco.

NOW IS THE TIME.—As we are just completing the fifth volume of our paper we would suggest that those whose subscriptions expire to come and see the proprietor, pay up, and renew. This is also a good time for those who have been so long promising themselves and us to subscribe, to commence; they will then begin with the new volume which will be larger and more attractive than any paper printed in the county. Now is the time.

THE Stars and Stripes says it would be in favor of a celebration by the people of our entire county, "if a place could be mutually agreed upon." That suits us to do, and we do not see why Dutch Flat should not be "mutually agreed upon" as the place.

END OF VOLUME FIVE.

The present number of the ENQUIRER completes its fifth year. During its existence, it has endeavored to advocate such measures as would redound to the interests of the people of Dutch Flat and Placer county, and we may safely say that we have to a certain extent succeeded, as the prosperity of our town in comparison with its condition five years ago, fully attests. We do not design speaking of the terrible changes wrought in our common country during the deadly struggle of the past four years; of the gigantic efforts made by designing, unprincipled men to disrupt our Government; of the herculean counter-efforts of the patriotic hosts to maintain the supremacy of law, order and the principles of a Democratic Government. Suffice it to say, the diabolical machinations of the one have been crushed and utterly demolished, while the fame, patriotism and glory of the other are themes of praise and gratulation with all christians and well-meaning men.

In politics, the ENQUIRER was started as an independent journal, and for years maintained its position in that respect, leaning, it is true to the Democratic party, believing that we were advocating, when we did touch upon political themes, the great principles as advocated by Jefferson, Madison and Jackson—the leaders and patriots of by-gone days. But we were mistaken; we had not calculated upon the terrible wickedness of such men as Davis, Breckenridge, Mason, Sidel, and others who had occupied the most honorable positions in the gift of the people of their sections. We say we were mistaken; and as soon as we arrived at the fact that it was either UNION or DIS-UNION; that the men from whom better things should reasonably have been expected, were endeavoring to stab the Government from which they were secured all the blessings of FREEDOM, by the promulgation of doctrines, which, if accepted by the people, would be the means of continual and endless separation of the States of the Union, we no longer hesitated on which side to go, and immediately came out on the side of the patriots who were battling for humanity and civilization, in their endorsement of the measures proposed and advocated by our martyred President and the eminent statesmen he had drawn around him, with all the energy and talent we possessed, in which, we are proud to say, we were, with others, successful in every respect. In the future, as in the past, we shall leave no stone unturned by which our beautiful town may be benefited, and the interests of our truly hospitable people advanced. We are glad to say that our pecuniary prospects are more flattering now than they have heretofore appeared; our business men appear to see the benefit of patronizing a local "institution" which has faithfully labored for their benefit so long, as the advertising columns of the paper will show. This being the case, the business of the town increasing with the rapid growth of population, we will commence volume VI. of the ENQUIRER in an enlarged form, and, we trust, greatly improved in every respect. Should the necessities of the times demand it, we shall, as soon as the demand occurs, commence the issue of a semi-weekly or daily.

Thanking the kind friends who have cheered us on heretofore, we pledge ourselves to so act in the future as to merit a continuance of their countenance and support.

LETTER FROM YANKEE JIMS.

YANKEE JIMS, May 15th, 1865.

FRIEND BOUST:—By an article which appeared in your paper of May 13th, we learn that ours is not the only locality in which copperheads of both sexes have, by words and actions, made themselves most contemptible to every lover of truth and right; spitting out venomous remarks about the Administration and its upholders; praising Jeff. Davis, Gen. Lee, and their followers, whenever an opportunity offered, until decent people, feeling that they had borne all the insult that was endurable, avoid their presence as they would a "plague or pestilence."

Nor need we, here, call names. They are marked individuals and known to all. Publicly has the wish been expressed by a lady (?) in our midst that "That old tyrant, Lincoln, was hung." She would like to tie the rope with her own hands. When the news came that he had been shot, all thought of the disposition to do the deed that had been uttered; and think you she is less culpable in the sight of Heaven, or less disgraced in the opinion of man than the real murderer and his accomplices east of the Rocky Mountains? True, her hand did not load the pistol by which our President received the death wound, but need we question if there would not have been another assistant at the assassination, had she been personally acquainted with Jeff. Davis and J. Wilkes Booth? The tide of affairs has changed. Secession lips dare not give utterance to secession principles; but, has fear made the heart any the more loyal? Do apologies now offered, or confessions now made that they were "rude and thoughtless" when treasonable sentiments were spoken, and now are repentant for having thus spoken, change their standing in public opinion? Nay, verily, we must place them among the "Pewter Patriots" who would come into the fold at the "thirteenth hour."

Justly said, and aptly expressed. We should watch these "latter-day" converts. Their professions come too late, and the scorn of every loyal community should be visited upon the hypocrites.

ANOTHER EFFIGY.—Early risers yesterday morning had they taken a look towards the upper end of Main street, could have beheld a sight both amusing and instructive. On the end of a beam, running out from Concert Hall building, was suspended a figure in hoops, representing Jeff's last attempt at escape and his ultimate punishment. The climax of ridicule would have been reached had the words of Mrs. J. D. to one of the soldiers, "don't irritate the President he'll hurt some of you!" been attached to the body. What a desperado she must have considered him to be! though the soldiers didn't appear to "scare worth a cent," as his personal appearance at the time of his capture probably caused more laughter than fear.

THE stockholders of the Rattlesnake gold and silver mining company met on Thursday last and elected the following officers for the ensuing year: M. S. Gardner, President; T. J. Nichols, Sec'y; W. H. Keeler, Treasurer; Jno. Fulweiler, Jacob Molter, Wm. Fineman, Trustees. The company's claim is located at Meadow Lake, Nevada county, and is said to prospect well and hopes are entertained by the stockholders to realize handsome dividends during the coming summer. Specimens of copper have been obtained from this lode which assay as high as forty per cent.

THE ORIENTAL ORDER OF ANCIENT HUMILITY.

—We are happy to be able to chronicle the progress and growth in our community of this time-honored and illustrious Ancient Order of Humility. Of the secret workings of the system we of course cannot deal; but with reference to the moral teachings which are inculcated in its precepts, we are at liberty fully to treat. Humility is a heaven-born attribute vouchsafed to man, and is taught in every lesson afforded by unerring nature. The flower, as it tends to its mother earth, giving forth its sweetness on the surrounding air, is but a type of man as he tends to that same earth, in token of his humiliation before the awful throne. The gentle brook, the winding river, the impetuous cataract, are all emblematical of that abasement before superior intelligence, as preparatory to the good which they are destined eventually to accomplish in their fructifying influence on all bosom of mother earth, to whose embrace they all bow in their devious courses to the unfathomable sea of the future. The very pines—lords of the forest, whose crowns reach the skies and whose spires point to the heavens—must bow in meek submission when the winds of heaven are raging overhead as if to point a moral to proud man, who in the midst of pomp, and pride, and power, beset by the storms of adversity and the tempest of misfortune, tends to the earth at last, a broken reed. Even the bright constellations of light, which, born in mid air, dart with a brilliancy borrowed from the glorious sun, will, after their little course is run, bury themselves in the earth and hide their humiliation in obscurity and gloom. Humility is one of the chief ornaments of character, and lends a grace which defies imitation. Pride has its counterfeit, Vanity; Love its imitator, Deceit; Truth its parasite, Sophistry; but Humility stands alone among the virtues, without counterfeit or imitation, sophistry or deceit; and he who has risen to the highest privileges afforded in his lectures and degrees, can alone arise from the earth erect, conscious that he has at last fathomed the great secret revealed in the teachings of humility. The Ancient Order has been established in this city, and the accessions have been so numerous lately that we have every reason to believe it will become one of the fixed and permanent institutions of the country. Branches will doubtless be extended to various sections, and the Order spread its wings of protection over the entire State. The Grand Officers of the Grand Temple of the Oriental Order of Ancient Humility are: S. H. Parker, G. G.; S. J. A. J. Bohlen, V. S. C. L. Thomas, G. G.; Geo. T. Bohlen, G. C. Charters for the establishment of Lodges can be obtained by petitioning the above Grand Officers—S. F. New Age.

The above coming to the notice of the Right Worthing Grand Officers of this honorable Order has called forth the following card, which the members of the San Francisco council will do well to heed. The Grand Temple is located at Red Dog, from whence all dispensations or charters must be issued:

ORIENTAL ORDER OF ANCIENT HUMILITY.
RED DOG, CAL., May 11th, 1865.

To the most August Seignor and Grand Officers of the O. O. of A. H.

WHEREAS, We have information through the medium of the New Age, an Odd Fellows' periodical published in the city of San Francisco, on the 6th inst., Vol. 1, No. 18, that certain persons within this A. S. of the O. O. of A. H. have arrogated to themselves a power unparalleled in the annals of the history of this time-honored and ancient Order through all its incipient stages throughout the globe. They have attempted to establish, by usurpation of power, a Grand Temple, which only the G. S. or his Deputy G. S. can establish in each Sachemdom on Grand Temple; and daily within this A. S. of the O. O. of A. H. have arrogated to themselves a power unparalleled in the annals of the history of this time-honored and ancient Order through all its incipient stages throughout the globe. TROUBLE AMONG THE CHINESE.—On Tuesday evening last, about seven o'clock, our ears were pierced by the musical warblings of a couple of thousand-Chinese. The melodious sounds came closer and closer, falling upon the ear with all the sweetness of the combined voices of fifty large-sized hogs fast in the same fence. Horror-stricken, we rushed to the door, and beheld a lone Chinaman making big time down Sacramento street, followed by some fifty or sixty of his jabbering countrymen, all crying at the top of their voices, "Catch-ee!" "Stop-ee!" On, turning the corner into Main street, he was seized by a Mexican man, and held until his pursuers arrived, when he was delivered up to them a prisoner. A big Chinaman on either side, a small one behind pulling his tail, he was marched back the way he came, downcast and crest-fallen, to Chinatown. On inquiry, we were told that the Chinaman had stolen four hundred dollars; but an "intelligent" celestial informed us that "he" stole one woman cost-ee four hundred dollar. What disposition was made of the susceptible John we have not yet ascertained.

SAD ACCIDENT.—On the 14th inst., says the Folio Telegraph, John Waters, while conversing with some friends about the death of Wm. Connell, picked up his gun, which was standing near by, and remarked that a man could have shot himself in the manner described. He placed the gun before him, with the muzzle against his abdomen, and reached down with his hand towards the trigger, and, as he did so, the gun was discharged, to the horror of all present. Mr. Waters exclaimed, "I am gone!" The whole charge entered his body, an inch below the navel. Drs. Donaldson, Clark and Powell were in immediate attendance, but human aid was of no avail. At half-past one he expired. Shortly after he was wounded he requested that his will might be written as he dictated, which was immediately done by B. C. Quigley. It was read to him in the presence of a number of persons: when he signed it by making his mark, being in too much pain to write his name in full, and was properly witnessed. Thus, in the space of a few hours, by this sad accident, the inscrutable decree of Divine Providence he passed from the full rigor of life to eternity. A man, who might truly be called one of "nature's noblemen," an upright and useful citizen, and a devoted friend. Mr. Waters was an old resident of this county, widely known and universally respected, and a member of the Masonic Fraternity. His loss will be sincerely mourned by this community.

BALL.—Our ball-going citizens will please remember that Mr. Farr will give one of his pleasant balls on Monday evening, June fifth. Tickets for supper and dance $2 50.

STATE OF CALIFORNIA.

PROCLAMATION BY FREDERICK F. LOW, Governor.

"I HUMBLE MY SOUL WITH FASTING, AND MY PRAYER RETURNED INTO MINE OWN BOSOM."
"I BEHAVED MYSELF AS THOUGH HE HAD BEEN MY FRIEND OR BROTHER."
When calamity or sorrow visits us, it is becoming that we should bow before the Lord in humility and ask for Divine guidance in our trials and wisdom to understand his chastenings.
We, as a people, are afflicted by the untimely death of him who was the friend and guardian of the nation; and it is meet that we should come before God with fasting and prayer, and ask his divine protection and support in this our time of need.
Therefore, in accordance with the Proclamation of the President of the United States, and in obedience with the earnest desires of a sorrowful people, I do appoint

Thursday, the first of June next,
As a day of Fasting, Humiliation and Prayer; and I do enjoin upon the people of this State that, laying aside all secular employments, they assemble in their accustomed places of worship on that day, and with penitent hearts, bow before Almighty God, confess their sins as individuals and as a people, and humbly pray that the Great Ruler of the Universe may sanctify the Nation's loss to its ultimate good.
Let us implore his blessing upon those who are in authority, that they may have the strength to bear the burdens imposed upon them; that they may see the path of duty clearly, and taking counsel of "him that has gone before," have the courage to sustain the right and oppose the wrong.
Navy, through whose labors, sufferings and sacrifices the life of the Nation was saved.
Let us supplicate Him that He may comfort and preserve the thousands of brave men now languishing in our hospitals, and speedily restore them in health to their homes, to receive a Nation's homage and gratitude.
Let us invoke his fostering care to sustain the widow and the fatherless who mourn the loss of their earthly protectors, fallen in the shock of battle.
Let us seek his blessings upon our State, and pray that He will enable us to preserve peace and good order within our borders.
And finally, let us pray that the year may be crowned with a peace that will last forever; that the industry of the country may be restored again to its accustomed channels; that liberty may be firmly established throughout the land, and prosperity be the lot of a united and happy people.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State to be affixed, this 8th day of May, A. D. 1865.
FREDERICK F. LOW, Governor.
Attest, B. B. Riddick, Secretary of State.

CONSTABLE'S SALE.—By virtue of an Execution to me delivered and directed on the 1st day of May, A. D. 1865, issued out of the Court of E. Aubrey, a Justice of the Peace in and for Township No. 4, county of Placer and State of California, on a judgment rendered in Justice's Court of E. B. Boush, on the 3d day of September, A. D. 1863, in favor of James Gilson, and against James A. Brant, for the sum of one hundred and one dollars, with interest upon the sum of one hundred and thirty-one 75-100, at the rate of ten per cent per annum, and for costs of suit taxed at thirty-one 75-100 dollars, I have this day levied upon and will expose to public sale, at the highest bidder for cash, in front of James Gilson's old house, in Lost Camp,
On Saturday, the 10th day of June, 1865,
At the hour of 12 o'clock, M., all the right, title, interest and claim which the said James A. Brant had on the 1st day of May, A. D. 1865, in and to the following described property, to wit: One undivided one-fourth interest in a certain mining claim known as the Lost Camp Mining Claim, situate, lying and being in the town of Lost Camp, in the Lost Camp Mining District, Township No. 4, State of California, and bounded as follows, to wit: Fronting on Texas Canon on the East 300 feet, on the South by the Fish Line Co's claim, on the North by No. 7, on the North and West by the Mountain Co's claim; together with all tunnels, ditches, or appurtenances thereto belonging. All of which named and described property I shall sell as aforesaid, or so much thereof as may be sufficient to satisfy the above judgment, together with the costs due and to become due thereon.

J. F. GREELEY,
Constable T. P. No. 4.
Dated May 13th, 1865.

HORRIBLE DEATH.—The Nevada Transcript of the 16th instant furnishes the following particulars of the death of F. B. Martin, at Washington, on the morning of the 15th:

He was engaged in hoisting boulders from the claims of Martin & Co. with a derrick, which is run by means of a water-wheel. The rope had been attached to a very heavy boulder, and it was necessary to raise it to a considerable height in order to clear the derrick. The deceased, in attempting to shift the rope after the cylinder on which it was wound was full, caught his arm between the rope and cylinder. He was unable to release himself and no one was near to assist him. The rope which sustained the weight of several tons, passed several times around the body and neck of deceased, killing him almost instantly.

HOPE FOR THE AFFLICTED.—In another part of this paper will be found the advertisement of the celebrated Institute established by Dr. J. C. Young, in 1850. In this age of deceit and charlatanism it is a boon to the suffering to point out to them where they are sure of obtaining the wished for relief and cure. Under the care of the skillful Doctor the sick and troubled can divest themselves of their burdens of pain; lay aside their cross, and secure health and happiness. If you are sick or in trouble, do not hesitate. Read the advertisement and follow the advice. Do not forget the number nor the manner of directing your letter. Consultation Office, 540, Washington street, San Francisco. no5-3m

MEDICAL CARD.—Success is said to be the criterion of merit. If this is so, Dr. Doherty is not an exception to the rule. Of the many physicians who advertise to cure the particular branches to which he has devoted his particular study, none has attained that wondrous and general practice which daily attend at his office. The great Record, of Paris, specially devoted his attention to the particular branch of Medicine denominated Specific and Chronic. Dr. Doherty has determined to do the same. Read his advertisement in another column, and the sworn statement of cures.

THE BEAUTIFUL SNOW.

"Oh! the snow, the beautiful snow,
Filling the sky and the earth below;
Over the hills, over the valleys,
Over the hearts of the people you meet,
Dancing, drifting, shimmering along,
Beautiful snow, it can do no wrong!
Flying to kiss a fair lady's cheek,
Clinging to lips in a frolicsome freak!
Beautiful snow from the heavens above,
Pure as an angel, and fickle as love!"

"Oh! the snow, the beautiful snow!
How the flakes gather and laugh as they go!
Whirling about in maddening fun,
It plays in its glee with every one.
Chasing, laughing, hurrying by,
It lights up the face and it sparkles the eye.
And even the dogs, with a bark and a bound,
Snap at the crystals that eddy around;
The town is alive and its heart in a glow
To welcome the coming of the beautiful snow!"

How the wild crowd goes swaying along,
Hailing each other with humor and song!
How the gay sledges, like meteors, pass by,
Bright for the moment, then lost to the eye:
Ringing, clanging, clashing along,
Over the crest of the beautiful snow!
How so pure when it falls from the sky,
To be trampled in mud by the crowd rushing by,
To be trampled and trampled by thousands of feet,
Till it blends with the filth of the horrible street!"

Once I was pure as the snow—but I fell!
Fell, like the snow-flakes, from I caven to hell!
Fell to be trampled as filth of the street!
Fell to be scoffed at, to be spit on, and beat!
Pleading, cursing, dragging to die,
Selling my soul to whoever would buy;
Dealing in shame for a morsel of bread;
Hating the living and fearing the dead;
Merciful God! have I fallen so low?
And yet I was once like the beautiful snow!

Once I was fair as the beautiful snow—
With an eye like its crystal, a heart like its glow;
Once I was loved for my innocent grace—
Flattered and sought for the charm of my face.
Father, mother, sister, all,
God and myself I have loved by my fall!
The veriest wretch that goes shivering by
Will take a wide sweep, lest I wander too nigh;
For all that is on, or about me, I know
There is nothing that's pure but the beautiful snow!

How strange it should be that the beautiful snow
Should fall on a sinner with nowhere to go!
How strange it should be that the beautiful snow
Should fall on the sinner who comes again,
If the snow and the ice struck my desperate brain;
Fainting, freezing, dying alone!
Too wicked for prayer, too weak for my moan
To be heard in the crash of the crazy town—
Gone mad in its joy at the snow's coming down;
To lie and to die, in my terrible woe,
With a bed and a shroud of the beautiful snow!

A PARISIAN EATING-HOUSE

Near the Barrière des Martyrs is located the Petit Ramponeau, one of the largest eating-houses in the whole of Paris. In the lower rooms congregate workmen and many country people, especially from the plain of St. Dennis, who come to Paris by thousands every day in their vegetable carts: on the first floor there is a large room for "finer persons," though still only workmen; for the bourgeois proper rarely come here, and a hat can be seen nowhere. It is kept by a German named Krauthimer, whose history furnishes an example of what putrefaction and industry is almost always sure to accomplish. The following sketch of the place and of the man are well worth reading:

Soon after the revolution of July, Krauthimer came to Paris just as he stood; he had brought two florins with him from home, but could not even spend them, as no one was willing to change the foreign coin. He became a marionette, omnibus, and eventually waiter, and finally set up on his own account—that is to say, he hired a shop at the corner of a street, hired a couple of chairs, and admitted a stove and a couple of frying pans, and sold fried potatoes. He always remained in front of the Barrière, in the vicinity of Montmartre, which is the Boulevard des Italiens of the working class. Hundreds of workmen daily passed his corner, and Krauthimer's potatoes were long become famous. A year later he also began to fry small fish, and, owing to the increase of his customers, he was obliged to enlarge his shop. When another year had passed away he purchased a real restaurant, and thus became a gargarizer. When I add it was the same establishment in which he commenced his career as marionette, it sounds like poetical exaggeration, but I am bound to add that it is true.

He was now established in the correct sense of the term, and the first thing he did, when he had become a master, was to return to Krauthimer and fetch his brother. He had been true to her for six years, and she to him. He had written to her once annually at Christmas. At last he was in a position to marry. The story is certainly not very romantic; it is merely a specimen of honest German fidelity in Berlin, windy Paris.

Two years have elapsed, and Herr Krauthimer has become a well-to-do and respected man, and if he had only consented to be naturalized, he would have been chosen into the municipality. But he refused to become a Frenchman. His establishment had grown considerably in the meantime; he had bought the adjoining house, and a large garden in the back, where people dined during the summer. Only workmen and factory hands, the poorer-kraut and sausage, with the addition of the eternal ragout de mouton for his French customers, and two or three dishes of a similar nature; such was the unchangeable bill of fare all the year round. Beer and wine were the sole beverages. Years ago I dined there in summer, and excellently so, frequently with six hundred workmen; on such occasions Herr Krauthimer (he had become gradually old) would wait on in person, spread the napkins, and set down for a moment's gossip. At times he would call up his children, and say, "Shinke hands with these gentlemen; it is a great honor for us that they visit us." At last he got twenty-five waiters to serve the guests, and twelve women in the kitchen, nearly all German; for he always kept his affection for everything T. U. tonic, and never denied his country. In the elevation year of 1855, of old memory, during the three winter months he daily gave fifty diners to the poor of his quarter. The Maire of Montmartre reported the fact to Paris, and obtained for him the great gold medal. Herr Krauthimer, being a man of importance, he could easily have secured the cross of the Legion; but, for the sake of decency, it was impossible to decorate a gargarizer, and it is said with a yearly income of twenty thousand francs. Although he was known to be rich, not a soul could comprehend this; for his portions were always the largest, his meat the best and its price the lowest. In this was the secret. He much desired a son to continue the business, but Heaven cannot give a man everything he wishes, especially when it has bestowed so much on him already. His two daughters are naturally excellent matches, and have made the mouth of more than one bachelor. But the father is looking out for German sons-in-law, and will not hear of frivolous Parisians.

A musical fish is described as on sight in London. Is it a codfish?—we know that that creature possesses sounds. What does it sing?—A life on the ocean wave?—And in what key is its voice pitched? We suppose in C. And does it run up its scales? We wonder if it sings with much scale. We shall take an early opportunity of visiting this maritime musician, in whom we feel ourselves drawn by a strange feeling—in fact, a funny-idea.

It is proposed to make the Opera brush-hats of a more durable and cheaper stuff, called "Rep." If this idea is ever fully developed, the fashionable gentry of our highly civilized nineteenth century will be walking about the streets like snake charmers, with Rep hats on their heads.

What time is it that which, split backwards and forwards, is the same? Noon.

THIS CELEBRATED INSTITUTE has enjoyed on this coast an uninterrupted success of fourteen years, and has become one of the renowned Hospitals of the age. What the celebrated Lock Hospital is to London, and the no less renowned establishment of Ricord is to Paris, this Institute has become to the Pacific coast. The thousands annually received and cured place it in point of number of patients among the very first of the world, and the success of its treatment ranks it second to none.

PRIVATE DISEASES IN MALES AND IRREG-ULARITIES IN FEMALES are the great destroyers of health. They insidiously attack the system and gradually undermine and destroy it; they drive
the bloom from the cheek, the lustre from the eye, the strength and vigor from the frame; they give to the world pany and diseased offspring, and poison through successive generations the race of man. The marks can be seen in Scrofula, Consumption, Cripples, the Idiocy, the Paralytic, the Insane, etc.

There is no more terrible scourge to the human race than these diseases arising from the contamination of Venereal Poison. The milder forms, by retreating to the blood, lead ever to the one afflicted, the sword of destruction that is liable at any moment
to fall and blight—to utterly destroy—all earthly hopes.

MERCURY, recognized as the most fatal medical enemy to man, contributing to the Venereal disease in dangers. Those who have been treated with that pernicious mineral poison are not cured; the disease has only assumed a new form.

Do not be satisfied with partial cures that leave the poison to crawl through the system, eating its way into the tissues and organs beneath the apparently smooth surface. To burst out in the future with a virulence that will make the effects of the disease. WHEN PERFECT CURES can be obtained by consulting a physician, and through investigation into the causes of DIS-EASES OF THE UPRINARY ORGANS enables to determine at once the nature of the disease.

In all diseases entrusted to the Doctor's care,
PERFECT, SPEEDY AND PERMANENT

Cures are Always Guaranteed.

In syphilis and its adjuncts: Gonorrhea and its accompanying diseases; and all disorders of the Bladder, Kidneys and prostate; Seminal Weakness;

SPINAL WEAKNESS OR SPERMATORRHOEA.
The young man who experiences that growing weakness in his muscular and nervous system, and should stop to consider whence it arises. He will find in the weakness of the back, trembling of the limbs, disordered digestion, unaccountable failing of the powers of the mind, distaste for society, dread of sleeping, trouble, forebodings of evil, sleeplessness, troubled and restless dreams, accompanied by growing deafness, loss of muscular power, and numerous other symptoms of disorganization, the positive traces of that most terrible and destructive of all diseases, Seminal Weakness—wasting away his powers, destroying his hope of life and mind, and dragging him along the path of death towards a premature and loathsome grave. To him who finds his life dripping out in the discharge of the vital principal of existence in nocturnal and diurnal emissions, the mere cessation of its appearance brings no assurance of relief.

Marriage, that holy office, the safeguard and hope of manhood, brings to such an one no hope of cure, but adds to his misery in the knowledge that the one who looks to him for so much of her happiness, is a victim of his evil, and an innocent companion of his punishment. He adds to his misery and disorder until hope leaves him. There is no cure, except in proper and skillful treatment. Consult, then, at once, a physician whom long practice and careful research has made thoroughly conversant with every phase of the disease. The man who has become the victim of solitary vice, that dreadful, fascinating and destructive habit, which debases the soul, and renders him a prey to the most terrible and destructive of all diseases, should consult, without a moment's delay, one who will sympathize with their sufferings. To such the Doctor would especially address himself, giving to each and all the most perfect and PER-MANENT CURE, without hindrance, from business, change of diet, or fear of exposure.

Do not forget the address. See below.

IMPORTANT TO FEMALES.
When a female is in trouble or afflicted with disease, and requires medical or surgical assistance, the only recourse to be taken is to consult a physician who is fully competent to administer relief, and whose respectable standing in society recommends him to the confidence of the community? The Doctor, understanding how imperatively necessary these requirements are, feels called upon to interpose, and by the attention of the afflicted to the fact that he has been a Professor of Obstetrics for twenty years, and is fully qualified to administer in all cases, both medically and surgically, not in a superficial manner, but in as thorough a manner as any study and practice—both in hospitals and private families—can make, to save them the hands of the unqualified, and the expense of designing. Therefore families can rely upon him as upon a father. All in affliction can find in him one who can feel and sympathize with and befriend them in trouble—one in whose secrecy and the utmost confidence can be placed. Consultation, by letter or otherwise, free. See address below.

THE Electropathic Institute,
645 Washington St., San Francisco.
ESTABLISHED FEBRUARY, 1850, BY AN ASSOCIATION OF SCIENTIFIC GEN-TLEMEN FOR THE CURE OF DISEAS-ES AND THE SUPPRESSION OF QUACKERY.

Truths for the Afflicted.
This splendid establishment was inaugurated in February, 1850, by an association of Scientific Gentlemen, that there might be a Medical Establishment in San Francisco, where the afflicted could find scientific and honorable, as well as humane treatment. Outrageous Quackery had so long run rampant over afflicted humanity that all confidence was being lost in the Medical Profession, and it was time that there should be an Institute where the afflicted could apply with the certainty of honorable and Scientific treatment. And the result has, thus far, exceeded the most sanguine expectations of its founders.

Thousands have been made to rejoice in returned health, who had been trifled with by the numerous vampires that abound upon this coast, the chief of whom has been obliged to close and leave the country; but still there are some left of whom the afflicted should beware.

The basis of the treatment at the Institute is the Electropathic System. The Physician and Surgeon who has been a Professor in one of the best Medical Colleges in America, and who has made a special study of Chronic Diseases for the last fifteen years, is thoroughly qualified to treat by medicine, and will warrant a perfect and permanent cure in the shortest possible time. All long-standing cases of disease no matter what may be their nature, give way under the course of treatment pursued at the Institute, and the result is perfect health and a strengthened constitution where it has been injured.

It would be useless to enumerate the diseases, as it would be occupying space to no purpose. Every numerable complaint to which humanity is liable can be cured by the Electropathic System.

No mercury is used upon any consideration. All medicines prescribed are vegetable, and in cases where the patient can remain in the city, and wishes to be treated by Electricity, no medicines will be administered. All medicines are electrical, which makes them much more active, and destroys all malarious taste, making them as palatable as wine.

The Directors wish to speak of specialities more extensively than of other complaints, because empirics have used more deception about them than they have about the regular troubles of the human family. And first on the list is that dread malady "Seminal Weakness, or Spermatorrhoea," a complaint which not only affects the body with pain and lastitude, making life a burden, but affects the brain, creating Insanity. It drives more men to the mad house than all other diseases added together. By the Electropathic System this terrible trouble gives way, and the afflicted victim is made to rejoice in perfect health.

Next upon the list is Venereal, in all of its terrible forms and phases.
It is impossible to paint this disease in colors sufficiently terrible to do it justice. It is the most awful disease to which the human family is liable, and if not arrested when active, when acting as a local mass of living corruption. It is also one of the most insidious diseases in the world. While the exterior shows no symptom, the horrible disease is sapping
the foundations of life, preparing to attack its vital parts, as soon as the patient shall by some indiscretionous act, or by the action of the system, call at once at the Institute, and the physician there will examine you and tell you if you have any of the virus in your blood. In such cases consultations are always gratis, and should you have any of the dreadful complaint about you, a course will be warranted in a short time, or no charge will be made for services.

Strictures.
This terrible affection, which badly affects the nervous system as to prevent sound and refreshing sleep, should be attended to in its early stages, or an operation both painful and dangerous will have to be resorted to. It is usually first indicated by darting pains in the parts, but very light and hardly noticeable at first, increasing gradually, until they become troublesome and sometimes accompanied by irritation in the passage of urine. A quick cure is easily performed at the Institute if early application is made.

To Females.
Your delicate organizations should be treated with great scientific care. At the Institute you will find an interview with Dr. Josephine, who will give you ease or trouble, and sympathize with you in your af-liction. Should you be irregular you can get relief, no matter what may be the cause. You need not fear to call on account of the delicacy of consultation
for the utmost secrecy will be insured at all times, and the residing physician will treat you in the most honorable manner, giving you the assistance and advice, both medical and surgical, that you may require. Private apartments, especially for Ladies.

Preventive.
Dr. J. H. Josephine's celebrated Preventive for married ladies can be obtained only at the Institute.
Price, Ten Dollars.

Warranted to prevent pregnancy. Can be used without any inconvenience, and is good for one year
if directions are followed.

This Magnetic Preventive is not injurious, but is conducive to health, and can be used without the knowledge of any one but the party using it.

To sum up, there is no place where the medical profession is practiced in the State of California, wherein the same amount of scientific attainments are employed, and consequently, where the afflicted can be so well treated, and as safe a cure
as at the Electropathic Institute, 645 Washington street, (south side), a few rods below Kearny.

Reader, if you are sick and need medical assistance
call there before employing any one else, and judge for yourself. You will there find the best consulting office, as well as the best operating talent in the State, together with the only Electropathic Instrument that can be depended upon in the curative process.

Medicine sent to all parts of the State, Oregon and Nevada, upon the receipt of a letter describing the case.
